FACULTY OF MEDICINE AND HEALTH SCIENCES
SCHOOL OF ALLIED HEALTH PROFESSIONS

Lecturer (Education and Scholarship) in Prosthetics & Orthotics

Grade 7a or 8* (depending on experience) - Starting salary £37,474 or £44,737***

Keele is the first UK University to offer a two-year pre-registration MSc Prosthetics & Orthotics programme.

Due to the growing numbers of students, with the 2nd cohort due to start in Jan 2023, an exciting opportunity has now arisen for another full-time position as a Prosthetics & Orthotics Lecturer within the growing School of Allied Health Professions.

The post-holder will support the Programme Director and teach both within the P&O programme, and across the School's educational portfolio. The team are particularly keen to recruit a colleague with recent prosthetics experience. The post-holder will join our enthusiastic and experienced P&O academic team.

Offering high-quality undergraduate and postgraduate provisions, the School is part of a research and scholarship community via the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences and the wider University. Established at Keele since 1994, the School has offered pre-registration Physiotherapy via varying routes, BSc Hons Radiography (Diagnostic Imaging) and Rehabilitation and Exercise Science Programmes as well as eight postgraduate taught Masters programmes and opportunities for doctoral study, including a Professional Doctorate option.

You will play a part in developing educational initiatives aligned with the school's strategic direction and will pursue scholarly activities in line with the School's focus.

You will be an HCPC registered Prosthetist/ Orthotist.

The School is particularly interested in candidates with recent Prosthetics experience and ideally would have an interest in biomechanics. Depending upon the profile of the successful candidate it may be possible to explore career development opportunities that involve research.

Keele University is renowned for its exciting approach to higher education, innovative research, beautiful campus, strong community spirit and excellent student experience. With a turnover in excess of £170 million, over 10,000 students and a total staff of approximately 2,000, the University provides high-quality teaching across a wide range of academic and vocational subjects and promotes world-class research.
