Orthotic Academy Clinician

ottobock.

An exciting opportunity has arisen to join the Ottobock Academy Team as an Orthotic Academy Clinician.

This is a dynamic, field-based role where you will play a key role in supporting the introduction and adoption of innovative, market-leading orthotic technologies. Working both proactively and responsively, you will engage clinicians through training sessions, patient fittings, and educational events, helping to drive clinical confidence and improved patient outcomes. As an Academy Clinician, you will:

- Deliver engaging, clinically focused training sessions and seminars
- Support clinicians with complex patient fittings and product selection
- Represent Ottobock at exhibitions, events, and professional forums
- Translate technical information into practical, clinically relevant guidance
- Act as a trusted partner to clinicians, supporting them in achieving optimal outcomes

We are looking for a well-respected, self-motivated clinician with strong communication skills and a passion for education. You will have a solid understanding of the orthotics market and the confidence to work independently in a field-based role.

Clinical experience with Ottobock orthotic componentry is desirable, although comprehensive training will be provided.

Essential Requirements:

- Degree (or equivalent) in Orthotics
- Registration with the Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC)
- Minimum of 2 years' experience working within the NHS
- Full UK driving licence
- Based in the Midlands/ North England

Desirable:

- Membership of BAPO
- Experience delivering training or mentoring colleagues
- Confidence presenting to groups and engaging stakeholders

This role is subject to a DBS check, and employment will be conditional upon satisfactory clearance.

We offer a competitive salary, company car, and benefits package, alongside the opportunity to work with a global market leader at the forefront of orthotic innovation.

For an informal discussion, please contact Kevin Green (Head of Orthotics UK) at Kevin.Green@ottobock.com or 07970 314693.

To apply, please send your CV and covering letter to Kevin.Green@ottobock.com

Closing date: 3rd April 2026
