Job description

The Limbless Association is seeking a highly experienced and effective Project Coordinator who is proactive, creative and resourceful. They will be a vital linchpin of LA projects, working closely with the Programme Development Manager to ensure projects are delivered on time, on budget, whilst delivering (exceeding) anticipated outcomes for amputees and their families.

This is an exciting opportunity to play a key role in ensuring LA projects achieve their aims in delivering vital support for individuals and their families experiencing amputation, through their rehabilitation, recovery and life beyond limb loss.

In addition to supporting existing projects, this role will work collaboratively with team members and key stakeholders to identify, scope, plan, fund and deliver new user-led initiatives. Impact measurement is an integral part of this busy role, ensuring that LA projects are evidence-based and outcomes-focused, contributing to sustainability and innovation.

We're looking for someone who:

- Is passionate about developing and delivering outcomes-focused projects that positively and tangibly impact the lives of beneficiaries.
- An efficient and effective project planner.
- Enjoys turning ideas into meaningful opportunities and actions.
- Can think strategically whilst remaining practical
- Understands the importance of lived experience and co-production
- Wants to make a genuine difference

If you are motivated by improving lives with purpose and compassion, we would love to hear from you.

We will be reviewing applications on receipt and may close applications in advance of the deadline posted.

Volunteering Coordinator

Job description

The Limbless Association is seeking an experienced Volunteer Coordinator who is knowledgeable, proactive, creative and resourceful. They will be passionate about the difference volunteers make and the difference their experience and knowledge can make to developing and enhancing volunteering across all activities at the LA.

This is an exciting opportunity to ensure LA volunteers play a key role in meeting the charity's objectives and are part of a thriving LA volunteer community. Lived experience is at the heart of the LA's work, and ensuring that volunteering initiatives are user-led and co-produced is vital. Peer support is an integral LA service offering, and LA Volunteer Visitors, lived experience volunteers, enable the charity to deliver vital, life-changing support for individuals and their families experiencing amputation, through their rehabilitation, recovery and lives beyond limb loss.

We're looking for someone who:

- Is passionate about volunteer involvement and developing volunteers, opportunities and outcomes..
- Has recent experience of supervising and coordinating a large volunteering community.
- Understands how to engage and motivate volunteers.
- Has recent knowledge and experience of good practice and trends in volunteering.
- Can think strategically whilst remaining practical
- Understands the importance of lived experience and co-production
- Wants to make a genuine difference

If you are motivated by improving lives with purpose and compassion, we would love to hear from you.

We will be reviewing applications on receipt and may close applications in advance of the deadline posted.

Fundraising and Communications Coordinator

Temporary (Fixed term for 2 years with the possibility of an extension)

Limbless Association
#LifeBeyondLimbLoss

Key Details

Remote

£28,000 per year pro-rata

Part-time (21-37 hours per week)

Temporary (Fixed-term contract for 2 years with the possibility of an extension)

Closing date: 15 September 2026

Job description

The Limbless Association is seeking an enthusiastic and tenacious Fundraising and Communications professional who is looking to advance their skills while supporting a longstanding, ambitious and respected small charity.

This role will be key in supporting the growth and sustainability of the Limbless Association by coordinating fundraising activities, supporting donors and growing multi-stakeholder engagement through creating relevant and compelling content across a range of communications media.

We operate in a multistakeholder environment, and we love our work and our mission. The postholder will turn ideas into actions, motivating and inspiring our community and beyond to support our work and cause. This is an exciting opportunity to make a tangible and measurable difference to the lives of those we exist to support. You'll meet and work with some amazing people with lived experience of limb loss and the incredible professionals who enable their recovery and rehabilitation. It's a truly inspirational sector to be involved in.

We're looking for someone who:

- Is passionate about raising funds and realising income generation opportunities that in turn ensure the delivery of vital services and support.
- Has recent fundraising and communications experience.
- Understands how to engage and motivate volunteers.

- Has up-to-date knowledge of regulatory requirements in fundraising practice.
- Is energetic, resourceful, creative and yet practical
- Understands the importance of lived experience and co-production
- Wants to make a genuine difference

If you are motivated by improving lives with purpose and compassion, we would love to hear from you.

We will be reviewing applications on receipt and may close applications in advance of the deadline posted.
